

MEDIA RELEASE

Free Annual Consumer Protection Fair on Monday, June 4, at Davis Center

SANTA BARBARA, CA – May 22, 2012

Information on internet scams and identity theft for older adults will be presented by Deputy District Attorney Vicki Johnson at the 3rd Annual Consumer Protection Fair on Monday, June 4, from 1-4pm at the Louise Lowry Davis Center, 1232 De la Vina Street. The workshop is put on by the Parks & Recreation Department, the Santa Barbara District Attorney's office, and AARP Chapter 72. This event is perfect for seniors who want to identify and be aware of these risks as well as adults who want to learn how to protect their parents, friends and neighbors. Resources will also be available from the Federal Trade Commission and the California Department of Consumer Affairs.
